

2018 Community Supported Agriculture

Farm Fresh – Organic – Nutritious – Economical – Local

Organic Vegetables • CSA • Market • Wholesale

What is Community Supported Agriculture?

Community Supported Agriculture (CSA) is a system in which consumers become shareholders of a local farm to share its risks and rewards. Our CSA members are the backbone of our farm. Their support gets us growing in the Spring and their enthusiasm sustains us throughout the season. In return, we share the bounty of our harvest.

How does it work?

FARM SHARE

Each week members pick up a box containing a selection of 7-11 of the best, most abundant crops available.

MARKET SHARE

Each week members select $30 worth of produce from our market display

(see reverse side for more details)

EXTEND THE SEASON

We offer a 4-week Spring share, a 20-week Summer share, and a 6-week Fall share. Mix and match or sign up for all 30 weeks!

About the farm

Eleanor Blakeslee and Patrick Hennebery operate Berry Brook Farm, where we grow vegetables certified by NOFA-NY Certified Organic, LLC. We strive to improve our soils through responsible organic practices and we believe in complete farm transparency.

As your farmers, we will plan carefully to minimize risk and maximize the bounty. We will make every effort to include a wide variety of freshly picked and carefully washed vegetables in each share. We agree to grow all produce organically with care for the plants and soil.

As a shareholder of Berry Brook Farm's Community Supported Agriculture program, I agree to assume the risks and rewards of the growing season with the farmers. I understand that farming is an unpredictable undertaking and that share volume and variety will fluctuate from week to week across the season.

FARM SHARE ONLY: If I am unable to pick up my share, it will be available at the farm for 24 hours. If I fail to pick up my share within 24 hours, I forfeit that week's share.

MARKET SHARE ONLY: If I am unable to pick up my share I will let the farmers know ahead of time and/or will arrange for a friend to pick it up. If I fail to arrange for my share to be picked up, I forfeit that week's share.
